Experience

Pixelberry Studios Mountain View, CA
Senior Writing Lead March 2025 - March 2026
Writing Lead May 2020 - March 2025
Junior Writer December 2017 - May 2020

- Shipped over 21 titles and led 10 of them on the top narrative app Choices: Stories You Play, including the most successful book of 2023, Blades of Light and Shadow 2.
- Wrote and debugged weekly scripts for a dialogue heavy live game in a proprietary coding language across a variety of genres, and matched character voices and tone in each.
- Adept at all elements of story creation: concepting, pitching, and brainstorming initial ideas, researching relevant material, outlining, writing, and editing chapters, and giving and addressing feedback.
- Provided executive level guidance to colleagues, helping them to improve their craft and the final work.
- Collaborated with art, production, QA, and contractors to ensure a seamless player experience.
- Managed and organized a team of external contractors, led the hiring and training process, provided contract management support to our legal team, paired contractors with appropriate projects, and addressed any issues that arose between them and our internal team.
- In collaboration with our social media and player support team, monitored our pages, crafted captions and copy, formulated responses to comments, and investigated writing related bugs.

Davidson College Department of English Davidson, NC
Work Study August 2014-May 2017
